Jennie Charlesworth is in her third year as head women’s varsity water polo coach and assistant aquatics coordinator at Macalester. In addition to coaching the polo squad, she will also serve as assistant swimming coach for the Macalester men’s and women’s teams.

Charlesworth was formerly the head girls’ water polo coach and swimming coach at St. Joseph High School in Lakewood, California, a position she held for seven years. She was also employed as aquatics specialist for the city of Anaheim, California, before being hired at Macalester.

“I am really excited to be part of the Aquatics program at Macalester,” said Charlesworth. “I am looking forward to making an impact on the lives of these student-athletes in and out of the water.”

A 2001 graduate of San Jose State University, where she played for the No. 5-ranked NCAA Division I program in the nation, Charlesworth began her polo and swimming coaching career as head coach for the boys’ program at St. John Bosco High School. Charlesworth swam for the San Jose State varsity for one season before concentrating on water polo for her final three collegiate seasons.
